

Creativity Abounds at The Arc's Off the Wall Gala

West Palm Beach, Fla. – Exhibitions of color, theatrics, emotion, and generosity marked The Arc of Palm Beach County's Off the Wall Gala. Vibrantly dressed guests attended the sold-out party on Saturday, March 7 at the Norton Museum of Art.

Attendees were enchanted by a parade of characters, including a moving painting and a life-sized flower during the interactive gala. Some of the clients from The Arc's Artisan Program displayed their artistic abilities during the cocktail hour, then danced the night away.

The GEO Group was the presenting sponsor for the fundraiser, which supports all the great works of The Arc. The nonprofit impacts 3,100 families each year by helping to provide education, housing, and employment services for people with disabilities.

About The Arc of Palm Beach County

The Arc is changing the conversation around disabilities by defying definitions, inspiring possibilities, and improving the lives of the people we serve. Since 1958, The Arc has envisioned a community where every person feels welcome, connected, and accepted.
